We have hear a rather light-hearted attitude toward evidence and exhibits, in this case by a candidate for the presidency of the American Bar Asscciation. This is not Exhibit 1053, which is a Secret Service paper, the last thing printed in Volume 18.

There is a remarkable-and officially unnoted- parallel with a similar handbill distributed in advance of President Kennedy's arrival in Dallas. Even more remarkably, the subject of the deposition was connected with that handbill.

For the moment, it is for your information only, for help in your own researches. Thought you'd like to see it before Paul.
